Dear Sir:

STATINTL

I am writing to request the services of [REDACTED] to speak to an elective course at the College. The course is titled "US National Security and World Affairs" and addresses the impact of a number of global and regional issues on US policy. In period 6 on 10 February 1978, the students will be studying Africa and in particular the situations in the Horn and in southern Africa. The period will be structured for one hour of lecture, one hour of question and answer and one hour of seminar discussion led by College instructors. The size of the course will be approximately 100, of whom 30 to 40 percent will be allied officers.

STATINTL

It would be appreciated if your agency could provide the funds for this visit. Accomodations will be available on the Post for [REDACTED]

Closer to the date of the visit, details of time and place and copies of the material relevant to period 6 which is issued to the students, will be sent to [REDACTED]. If you have any questions regarding the visit, you are asked to call LTC Peter Pearson, who is managing author for the course, at (913) 684-2004 or Autovon 552-2004.

STATINTL

Sincerely,

RICHARD A. MANION
Colonel, FA
Director, DUCO
